Sterling Pianos

THE OLD AND RELIABLE
STERLING

Has been before the public so long that its Reputation is unquestioned.

There are pianos that cost more than Sterlings, but there are none better and few as good.

Sterlings are Modern in every respect, and contain many improvements and devices not found in other pianos.

Our Patent Practice Attachment allows our Pianos to be continually used without harm or wear for many years.

Our Methods of Selling permit those of moderate means to purchase a good Piano on very easy terms.

7 Used Sterlings, Nearly new, very fine instruments. Liberal reductions, see to them.

Always on Hand, a large stock of used Pianos of our own and other reliable makes at greatly reduced prices.

40 Uprights, nearly all well known makes, that have come from Brooklyn's best homes in exchange for

STERLINGS All have been thoroughly reconstructed and newly finished and are so good that we will warrant them for 5 years, with privilege of exchange for Sterlings, and full amount paid will be deducted from the purchase price.

$90, $115, $135 to $175. "Every piano in our showrooms is marked in plain figures."

20 Square Pianos, Some as good as new.

$25, $40, $60, $75. Small monthly payments.

HADLEY ON PUBLIC OPINION. Mr. Kennedy for Certain Evils Which He Thinks Menace the Republic.

BERKELEY, Cal., March 23.—The principal orator at the Charter Day exercises of the University of California today was President Arthur Tappan Hadley of Yale University. His address was delivered in connection with the exercises. President Hadley's subject was "Government by Public Opinion."

These are the theories of democratic government: the individualistic, which relies on the self-interest of the various citizens acting independently, and the socialistic, which relies mainly on the votes of these citizens acting in a body. Neither has proved wholly satisfactory.

With regard to the individualistic theory this is now abandoned. Self-interest has done a great deal for us, but it will not do everything. It is a powerful stimulant for good, but neither in economics nor morals is it that panacea for social ills which so many persons two generations ago thought it to be.

The competition was far better than the old systems of class legislation, which it superseded. But we cannot have free competition everywhere, nor is it certain that in those cases where we can have it, it produces so great a degree of justice as was once supposed.

Under these circumstances the socialist, and many who are not socialists, demand that these evils be controlled by the use of the machinery of government. But the power to use this machinery in the public interest is in some respects more apparent than real.

A democratic government is subject to special difficulties in exercising this power. It lacks the compelling force behind it which is felt in a monarchy or an aristocracy—for what is everybody's business is nobody's business; and laws which were passed with enthusiasm, often go unenforced. It lacks the continuity of power and tenacity of purpose, which are so characteristic of a monarchy or an aristocracy.

It lacks self-restraint in the use of the law. It lacks the power to enforce its laws. It lacks the power to enforce its laws. It lacks the power to enforce its laws.

The Spring Millinery.

The 'Brooklyn Eagle' says: "Matthews' hats are always models of attractiveness and style, but this season a special touch of elegance and individuality lends additional charm, and the general effect of the show rooms is picturesquely suggestive of Springtime."

The breadth of representation is a characteristic of Matthews. Millinery never attained a higher standard of true beauty than it shows this season. The best of all hats has been applied, and we have never had more or finer hats on show.

We have marked for Monday's selling only, our Chiffon Hats, in black and colors, regularly sold for $3.25..... $1.69

A corner of our Millinery department has been assigned to a special trimmer, who will, on Monday only, trim all hats, where the hat and materials are purchased here.
